

WALL STREET.

Market Closing—Weakness in Lehigh Valley was attributed to widespread rumors of a pending suit against the company.

In late afternoon the general list was unchanged to a test through weakness of Lehigh Valley and of Lehigh Valley, but stocks in general held up and it looked as if a moderate further movement would result in at least a moderate advance.

Total sales, $16,890 shares. Opening was quiet but fractional gains were shown all through active trading. Technical position seemed to be strong, but there was a lack of bullish initiative, and traders expressed view that stocks should be sold on strong spots.

Strength in Canadian Pacific was regarded as a reflex of a better sentiment abroad, where stock is largely held. Opening sale was at 207, a gain of 1-4. Steel was unchanged. A fair degree of strength was shown during the first half hour. On announcement that dividends would be discontinued on Colorado and Southern first and second preferred stocks, both issues dropped about 1-2 points. Baltimore and Ohio was strong, rising to 89 3-4. Toward end of first hour market developed a sagging tendency, but stocks were not pressed for sale and decline did not extend beyond fractional limits. Colorado and Southern first preferred dropped at 48 and forty shares at 48 1/2, a loss of 5 points from previous close. California and Mexican Petroleum stocks were active, both making gains. Mo. K. and T. preferred rallied 1 1/2 to 48 1/2. During early afternoon market was exceedingly dull, with exception of the so-called Reid-Moore issues, Lehigh Valley and Rock Island, which were weak and this produced a more or less depressing influence over general list.
